Dear Harold:

The Times usually chooses to print a letter on a wholly tangential aspect of Frame-Up.

Ironically, The Kaplan review came on the heels of a literary storm which arose over The Times assigning of Anatole Broyard to review a novel by Chandler Brossard although the enmity of the men was well known.

The Federal imputation

against The Shaw Trial
may be a blessing
in disguise.

Two points
raised in Dombroff's The Higher Circles may interest you.

The Utah Corp.
was Rockefeller-
financed.
